Cookie Policy

1. INTRODUCTION

A cookie is a small piece of data that is stored on your device (computer, smartphone etc.) when you access a website.

As a visitor to our site, cookies are stored on your browser or web applications, usually to keep track of your movements and actions on our site. Cookies can tailor the operation of browsers and web applications based on information gathered during your last visit to our site. Our website uses cookies to provide the best experience to you when visiting the website.

You can set your browser to block all or some cookies or to provide alerts in regards to cookies. Should you choose to block, disable or refuse cookies from our site this may cause certain parts of our website not to function properly or at all.

2. WHAT DO WE USE COOKIES FOR?

We use cookies for the following reasons to track your movements and actions on our site.

3. TYPES OF COOKIES

Session Cookies:

These cookies are erased from your device when you close your web browser, and do not collect information from your computer. They typically store information in the form of a session identification that does not personally identify the user.

Persistent Cookies:

These cookies are stored on your hard drive until they expire (i.e. the are based on a set expiration date) or until you delete them. These cookies are used to collect identifying information about the user, such as Web surfing behaviour or user preferences for a specific site.

4. WHY DO WE USE COOKIES?

Strictly Necessary Cookies:

These are cookies that are necessary for the effective operation of our website, used for example when completing a form or making a purchase through our website.

Performance Cookies:

These are cookies that allow us to capture how you navigate around our website including how long you spend on our site, the number of visits and which buttons are selected. This information allows us to provide an enhanced experience to you through providing a site that is more easily navigated.

Functionality Cookies:

These are cookies that allow our website to recognise when you return to the site, allowing us to remember your preferences from your previous visit.

Targeting Cookies:

These cookies allow us to record the individual pages on our website that you visit and the links that you have selected, allowing for a more tailored content based on your interests.
